

Accident Avoidance Workshops

driver trainin' the way it ought'a be!

Bad news: Scheduling is on hold.

This is the same program done at Bristol
MotorSpeedway
ATLANTA
MOTOR SPEEDWAY

Due to the social climate, all in-person training is on hold until further notice.

Who would have ever predicted 1,350,000 deaths this past year?

(Traffic crashes that is, and actually, it's EVERY year ... not just 2020.)

There's a bug going around too. And although over 70 MILLION have successfully recovered from it, it has caused some death this past year as well. But we know that mortality rate still pales in comparison to the horrific mortality rate traffic accidents have ANNUALLY, so yes ... we fully-intend to keep fighting this bigger, more lethal, and more significant battle.

So, here's the GOOD news!:

To give everyone more options on how to complete this program, we are excited to announce the development of the Accident Avoidance Workshops "Take Home Edition"

- ~ Still hosted and narrated by Homer, complete with his stupid humor.
- ~ It will be a direct-lift of the "In-person Edition", but covers several additional exercises we could not include earlier due to time constraints.

~ NEW: Chapters on Distracted Driving, Driving Strategies, The Human Nature of Driving, Law Enforcement, The Anatomy of a Crash, Communication, Manners and Respect, The Physics of Driving and Vehicle Selection and more.

- ~ It covers dozens of topics not addressed by any other programs.
- ~ Drone-videoed demonstrations of the exercises.
- ~ 20+ operational, preparational and even observational exercises included.

- ~ Complete with "Coach The Coach" sections to help the parents guide their student through the entire "learning to drive" process.
- ~ Can be completed to fit your schedule.
- ~ Sponsors are still stepping up, so the price keeps going down, but we even though the retail price of the "In-Person" version was $599, we already know the inaugural release will be discounted to AT LEAST 60% off of that price as an introductory, limited offer.
- ~ Defensive Driving Certificate-eligible.

We expect to complete filming and begin post-production by August.
